

2008 - 2009 CONCERT SERIES

January 5 Chris Pendleton & David Levesque

These comedic musicians present a wonderful double bill of musical virtuosity and clean comedy. David, the wild, wacky and wonderful fiddler is described as the “Victor Borges of the Violin” while Chris, with her phenomenal musical talent, adds a “Jack Benny” dimension to her presentation. The two together are magic!

January 19 Larry Linkin & his Musical Trio

“Link”, as he is known in the musical world, is one of the top five swing clarinetists in the nation. He thrills audiences worldwide on stage and as a featured guest artist on several world class cruise ships. His performance is exciting and fresh as he swings in the styles of Artie Shaw, Benny Goodman and Woody Herman.

February 2 The Barbary Coast Dixieland Band

This high-energy group continues to astound music fans everywhere they perform. Their accolades claim “they are not just another Dixieland band, but a dynamic group of musicians who kick out a highly entertaining show with personality, humor and some of the happiest music imaginable.

February 16 Max Frampton featuring vocalist Sam Hagan

Mac Frampton is sound worth seeing! The magnificence of his music, the power of his personality and the humor of his wit crescendos to an amazing performance. Mac is considered to be one of the nation’s top pop concert pianists. Vocalist, Sam Hagan, has performed as a featured soloist with some of America’s best orchestras throughout the United States and the world. He is also a member of the renowned “Three Inspirational Tenors”, a popular trio offering sacred and secular classics.

March 2 New Odyssey

Their musicianship is spectacular, their vocal harmonies astounding and their comedy hysterical. Take three men, proficient on more instruments than one can imagine, tack on voices which will leave you astounded and mix in a few high energy impressions and you’ve got the most amazing show! Think... Tina Turner in full makeup and costuming. Hold on to your hats as this talented group will leave you wanting more of their versatile and high-energy show!

March 16 Catacoustic Groove

This dynamic group performs with close harmonies, no instruments and no safety net. Their honed sound carries music from classical to doo-wop, rock, soul and R & B with arrangements one wouldn’t believe could be sung a cappella. Throw in some Irish Gaelic, original music, random inspiration and you have “Catacoustic Groove”! Its infectious energy personified!

SPECIAL PERFORMANCES

February 9 Ken Block

Straight from a long run in Las Vegas, Ken Block is one of the most versatile comic impressionists on the scene today. His state of the art, one man show has audiences on their feet cheering with his impressions of Rodney Dangerfield, Jimmy Stewart, Jeff Foxworthy, Bill Cosby, Bill Clinton, Dean Martin and the legendary George Burns. Over 100 impressions for each of his shows as performed on Princess Cruise Lines, the Royal Hawaiian and Atlantic City. A performance you will not soon forget.

March 9 Mexico's Three Tenors

A concert like no other, this trio from South of the border follows in the footsteps of other three tenor groups who feature the music of their culture. The passionate performance of Mexico's Three Tenors is a musical explosion of tenor favorites. Spanning generations and style of Latin music to include bolero, ranchera and zarzuela, this trio shines brightest when singing these famous masterpieces of music, which include Granada, Jurame, Besame Mucho and Porque. No other music can evoke the unbridled passion in performance that Latin music can. The last time Mexico's Three Tenors performed in the Valley was to a sell out crowd at the Mesa Arts Center in 2005.
